

Breaking Up IS HARD TO DO

Featuring the Songs of Neil Sedaka

“Breaking Up is Hard to Do featuring the songs of Neil Sedaka” – Ives Auditorium

Set at a Catskills resort in 1960, this is the sweetly comic story of Lois and Marge, two friends from Brooklyn in search of good times and romance over one wild Labor Day weekend. The score showcases 18 Neil Sedaka classics, including “Where the Boys Are”, “Sweet Sixteen”, “Calendar Girl”, “Love Will Keep Us Together”, and of course, the chart-topping title song.

Menu: oven fried chicken, mashed potatoes and gravy, buttered corn, southern style green beans, coleslaw, buttermilk biscuits, assorted desserts and coffee/water/hot tea. Special dietary needs available upon request.

“The Music Man” – Chanhassen Dinner Theatre

Meredith Willson's six-time, Tony Award-winning musical comedy has been entertaining audiences since 1957 and is a family-friendly story to be shared with every generation. The Music Man follows fast-talking traveling salesman, Harold Hill, as he cons the people of River City, Iowa into buying instruments and uniforms for a boys' band that he vows to organize – this, despite the fact that he doesn't know a trombone from a treble clef. His plans to skip town with the cash are foiled when he falls for Marian, the librarian, who transforms him into a respectable citizen by curtain's fall.

Menu: choice of entrée, warm bread and butter, coffee, tea or milk.
